

This extraordinary Magician, appreciated by celebrities and the jet set, comes to your private, public or corporate parties to offer you a breathtaking magic show. He travels to the most enchanting places in St Tropez, Monaco, Courchevel, Paris, St Barth, as well as the most prestigious establishments abroad to dazzle a demanding and refined clientele.

Stéphane knew how to modernize the art of magic by drawing on his numerous experiences and services to create shows adapted to all places and audiences. Whether it is a private party or a public or corporate event, this artist is able to juggle the specialties of his art to meet the most demanding requests and make each event a unique moment.

Specializing in close-up, one of the most difficult categories to master in the art of magic, Stéphane excels in the art of captivating his audience by mixing humor, magic and dreams. Hours of work, boundless creativity and limitless imagination are the secrets of this exceptional illusionist.

There is no doubt that this extraordinary artist will one day be declared of public interest, because he is one of the few who can bring so much joy, magic and dreams into people's lives. Don't miss the opportunity to welcome him to your home for an unforgettable evening.

